Reactive Dog Training

A Program for under confident or fearful dogs who may react inappropriately in a variety of circumstances. We'll identify your dog's issues and triggers, teach you how to positively manage your dog's behavior, and provide training to improve the behavior. We'll begin with private sessions and move to include other dogs, people and classes as appropriate.

Consultation Appointment

One hour consultation appointments are designed for those who want to solve specific behavior or training issues. Daytime and evening appointment available at our facility. Phone follow-up at no charge.

Private Foundations

Tailored to fit your training and scheduling needs while ensuring your dog learns foundation skills like good walking, recall, polite greetings and more. Daytime and evening appointments available at our facility

About Us

Dog Talk incorporates the latest in training and behavior management techniques to help you mold a confident, willing, obedient canine partner. Whether you need behavior solutions, want a polite family companion or intend to participate in therapy work or canine performance sports, our training classes will help you get the results you want.

Dog Talk staff routinely hone their skills by attending other conferences and seminars on training, and canine psychology, learning theory and behavior modification each year so that clients benefit from the latest knowledge.
